

BLOCK A – THE MINIMUM WAGE IMPACT

Session ID: DTA

PRESENTER: MARGO DUNNET

STYLE: PRESENTATION & DIALOGUE

Workshop emphasis: British Columbia's minimum wage will hit $15.20 per hour by 2021. How will your camp meet this change in the economy? This workshop will begin with information about minimum wage changes in Canada and the US and move into the common strategies used by small businesses to answer these changes. We'll then delve into the BC context and open up a discussion around how our camps are affected and what we are each doing.

Bio: Margo Dunnet is the Executive Director of Camp Fircom. She is also the Chair of the Minimum Wage Committee of the BC Camps Association.

BLOCK B – WORKING WITH ANXIOUS PARENTS

Session ID: DTB

PRESENTER: TIM LARSON

STYLE: ROUND TABLE

Workshop emphasis: When caring for children we're also caring for their parents and guardians. How are we, as child care givers and camp leaders, listening to and caring for parents who are worried, anxious or perhaps feeling a multitude of other emotions as they register, consider camp programming, consider camps, and release their precious cherub into our care? Bring your experience and thoughtfulness to consider these questions.

Bio: Tim Larson has served with Camp Homewood, Imadene, Pioneer Pacific, Kawkawa and most recently camp Squeah for the past 11 years at it's Summer Director and now solely as the Outdoor Education Director. Tim lives on site with his darling wife Kari and 4 blonde boys loving camp and enjoying life.

BLOCK C – OUTDOOR EDUCATION AND THE NEW BC CURRICULUM

Session ID: DTC

PRESENTER: HARTLEY BANACK

STYLE: PRESENTATION & DIALOGUE

Workshop emphasis: This workshop will invite participants to notice patterns in the new BC Ministry of Education curriculum in and across subject disciplines, and then offer opportunities to discuss how these patterns connect BCCA/FCC camps and the curriculum. The workshop will be interactive and encourages participants to bring their own realities and experiences to explore as case studies.

Bio: Hartley Banack is the Outdoor Environmental Education Coordinator and Instructor for the Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy in the Faculty of Education at UBC. He works with pre-service and in-service K-12 teachers. Hartley will draw on lived experience with the BCCA/FCC and summer camps in BC, as well as from his current role with UBC.

BLOCK A – FOSTERING SELF-ESTEEM IN TEENAGE GIRLS

Session ID: SLA

PRESENTER: BETH ALLISON

STYLE: INTERACTIVE LECTURE & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: In this presentation, we will focus in detail on the ways in which societal and cultural changes affect teen girls: their relationships, striving for perfecting, rising levels of anxiety, and issues with self-esteem. Benefiting from the creative training techniques of Beth's 42-year camp experience, participants will learn how to develop an engaging and respectful learning environment through hands-on, individual, and group activities.

Bio: After 42 years in the Camp industry, Beth is more passionate than ever about intentional leadership training and building solid, supportive community. After serving as an Executive Director of five summer camps in Ontario, Canada, she created CampHacker with her husband, Travis, became a founding member of GoCampPro, and is now an author, trainer, and one of the hosts of Camp Code, a podcast dedicated to leadership training. Her goal is to make everyone she has the privilege to meet feel valued and affirmed for who they are. Oh, and she's a sucker for a great acronym.

BLOCK B – EMPOWER CAMPERS AND STAFF TO BE AGENTS OF EMPATHY

Session ID: SLB

PRESENTER: GABRIELLE RAILL

STYLE: WALKSHOP (WALKING CURRICULUM EXERCISE)

Workshop emphasis: Using the simple techniques learned in this session, you can help make your camp a safer environment, where both campers and staff can thrive through a culture of empathy.

Bio: Gabrielle Raill has combined her passion for education and her camp experience to develop a wide range of educational and developmental programs. She has consulted with several organizations including The International Camping Fellowship and NASA. She is the Camp Director of Camp Ouareau where her mission is to create a positive female environment for all-girls camp. In addition, she is a proud co-host of the podcast Camp Code and Camp Hacker.

BLOCK C – Q & A PROGRAMMING + LEADERSHIP CHAT

Session ID: SLC

STYLE: Q & A

Workshop emphasis: Join Beth and Gabrielle in an open Q & A session centered around programming and leadership. Come with your questions and participate in discussion and dialogue with the Camp Pros!

BLOCK D – 10 WAYS TO BRING OUT THE BEST IN OTHER LEADERS

Session ID: SLD

PRESENTER: CODY FRIESEN

STYLE: INTERACTIVE LECTURE & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: We all deal with leaders: volunteer, paid, seasonal, part-time, your mother-in-law, etc. We, as Camp Professionals, need to be aware of how to build the next generation of leaders to ensure sustainability & longevity at our camps. In this workshop, we will go through 10 key steps to equip your staff to become the best possible leaders they can be.

Bio: Cody is the Program Manager at Camp Luther and has been in the Camping Industry for nearly 10 years. He's passionate about empowering young leaders, legacy building and loves managing the tension between the creative process and the logistics of programming. When he's not doing camp stuff you can find Cody still building campfires, drinking coffee or teaching musical theatre across B.C.

BLOCK E – MENTORING UP- INFLUENCING YOUR BOSS WITHOUT GETTING FIRED

Session ID: SLE

PRESENTER: TIM PAQUETTE

STYLE: INTERACTIVE LECTURE & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: Do you have an idea about how camp could be improved? Does it feel like your position makes it difficult to effect meaningful change? This workshop will present the mentoring constellation in a camping context. Camping leaders need your voice, relevance, intelligence, giftedness and passion.

Bio: Tim is new to the camping industry. His four children grew up attending Sunnybrae Bible Camp, so you can imagine how happy they were to call it home. He loves watching SBC staff enjoying each other, visiting other camp staff, and being the parent of adult children.

BLOCK F – CREATING LEADERSHIP BY GIVING IT AWAY

Session ID: SLF

PRESENTER: KYLE REDDEMAN

STYLE: PRESENTATION & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: The programming world is ever changing and surrounded with young leaders with great ideas. This workshop is about maximizing your camp programming by building up a fleet of gifted young leaders. A Program Director gets older and dynamics change with family, age, and other responsibilities. This workshop is about equipping others through these realizations.

Bio: Kyle has grown and developed ministry skills through the local church and being the Program Director at Sunnybrae Bible Camp for the last 8 years.

BLOCK A – SUMMER CAMP PROGRAMMING PANEL

Session ID: SCA

PRESENTER: DAVE HORTON

STYLE: ROUND TABLE

Workshop emphasis: This round table will be time to hear what's new, what has worked well and what not to do. Bring your questions for this panel to hear how they have walked through some of the programming headaches that you may be having.

Bio's: Dave Horton has been as the Program Director at Ness Lake Bible Camp since 2004 which now includes overseeing their main site programs, their back to basics WilderNess camp and their servant leadership Work Crew program. He loves to share ideas and resources with those in the camping world. Be warned, he has 6 kids and will not stop talking about them if asked.

BLOCK B – THE SCIENCE OF CAMPFIRES

Session ID: SCB

PRESENTER: EMILY KALIL

STYLE: INTERACTIVE, WALK-SHOP, EXPERIENTIAL

Workshop emphasis: Each camper takes home special memories of a camping experience – everyone cherishes certain moments for certain personal reasons, but all of us remember the warm, glowing atmosphere that is created with each campfire. It may be the image of the bright flames that triggers our memory. But the fire alone cannot create those lasting memories – it is the program that is developed around the burning wood that lingers in our mind.

Bio: With over 10 years of camp program experience in Ontario, Emily has found a home at Camp Summit in the role of Director of Outdoor Education and Summer Senior Leadership Challenge Coordinator and has been loving life ever since. Emily is also currently on the BCCA board of directors.

BLOCK C – BAZOOKA BALL!

Session ID: SCC

PRESENTER: CHRIS BURDGE

STYLE: INTERACTIVE, WALK-SHOP, EXPERIENTIAL

Workshop emphasis: Bazooka ball is a ton of fun for players of all ages. From grandkids to grandma and everyone in between anyone can play! Bazooka ball fires 2-inch foam balls from modified barrels that you attach to paint ball markers. This workshop will introduce you to this low cost activity and give you an opportunity to play and see if it would be a good fit for your camping program.

Bio: Chris Burdge has 23 years of full-time camping experience. Since 2011 he has been the Director of Program and Development at Camp Imadene. In this position he is responsible for developing activities, games, and infrastructure that will fulfill the mission statement of Camp Imadene.

BLOCK D – ARE YOU READY – THE LIFESAVING SOCIETY

Session ID: SCD

PRESENTER: CHERYL SIBANY

STYLE: PRESENTATION & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: This workshop will assist camp directors and staff in their preparedness for managing a major incident. The objective is to provide valuable information to recreation staff that will assist them in creating plans for the prevention, response and follow-up to any major incident. The agenda will include a presentation of the ARE YOU READY video and workbook.

Bio's: Cheryl is currently the Program Manager at the Lifesaving Society of BC & Yukon Branch. Cheryl's role at the society is to manage the portfolios of Aquatic Safety Management and Lifesaving Sport. Cheryl has wide-ranging aquatic qualifications from Chief Auditor, Pool Operator Instructor, National Trainer, National Lifeguard and First Aid Instructor Trainer and Swim and Lifesaving Instructor Trainer. She has worked in a variety of recreation settings.

BLOCK E – TO TELL A BETTER STORY

Session ID: SCE

PRESENTER: DEREK BROUGHTON

STYLE: INTERACTIVE LECTURE & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: When we hear a good story our ears perk up and we listen intently. Whether to convey wisdom, advice, information, or simply to entertain at campfire, we recognize the power of a good story. But how do you tell one that compels people to listen? Learn practical ways to up your storytelling game, interactively exploring the purpose and creative elements needed, while practicing and improving one of your own stories.

Bio: Derek's journey in camp leadership has taken him through four provinces and 15+ years. As Program Director at Hope Bay Bible Camp his heart is to equip and empower leaders to do their absolute best, including effectively communicating through story. His own stories are well received by campers and staff, and have become a special staple at campfires.

BLOCK F – CHALLENGE COURSE & CLIMBING WALL OPERATIONS

Session ID: SCF

PRESENTER: KATHY HARAS

STYLE: INTERACTIVE LECTURE & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: Beyond running the activity for campers, there are a large number of functions associated with the safe and effective operation of ropes courses, zip lines, and climbing walls, and rock climbing sites. This workshop will have the answer to your questions about site management, equipment management, staff management, participant management, standards, and more. There will also be time to ask additional questions.

Bio: *Kathy Haras is Vice President and Principal Consultant Adventureworks! Associates Inc. and visits 60-80 sites across Canada to provide training, inspection, installation and other challenge course and climbing wall services. She is a Zip Line Mechanic and ACCT certified Level 2 Inspector – Supervisor. BLOCK B - GUEST SERVICES OR SERVING GUESTS - DEFINING & ORGANIZING NEEDS

ID: FGB

PRESENTER: DAVE WISMATH

STYLE: ROUND TABLE

Workshop emphasis: This workshop will focus on how to best serve our guests, mostly 'non-summer', as many camps also operate as retreat centers. Possible areas for discussion include: food services, room amenities, creature comforts, on site activities, access to office equipment, WiFi, weddings and other special events, managing expectations, good communication within the services team and with guest group organizers, software systems for group bookings. We will solicit and give preference to concerns raised directly by the workshop participants.

Bio: Dave has come from Ontario to Nova Scotia to BC. He was civil engineer for 11 years, a VW logistics/quality manager for 11 years, an administrative assistant and group bookings coordinator at Camp Squeah for 10+ years. Married with two 20ish year old adulting children.

BLOCK C - MENU PLANNING POSSIBILITIES

Session ID: FGC

PRESENTER: REBECCA STAUFFER

STYLE: PRESENTATION & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: What goes in to a great working menu? When does a menu need to be tweaked? What philosophy does the menu reveal? How do you get WOW without an OW! (Over Budget?). Attendees are asked to bring copies of a favorite camp recipe for sharing if possible.

Bio: Rebecca has worked in camp food service for the past thirteen years. She has a passion for good food and great teamwork in the kitchen! A late bloomer, Rebecca accomplished a goal of achieving her Red Seal in culinary arts last year. When she is not making up menus or cooking what's on them, she likes to hang out with husband Cliff, walk her dog Daisy, and visit her grandchildren.

BLOCK D – VOLUNTEER RECRUITMENT 101

Session ID: FGD

PRESENTER: JENNY LEE

STYLE: INTERACTIVE LECTURE & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: Volunteers play a vital role from supporting the camp program's smooth operation to being role models to campers. Finding volunteers who are the right fit and retaining them can be as challenging as recruiting staff. This workshop will share tips on exploring different recruitment tools to reach target audiences, asking the right questions and using proper screening tools to find the right fit, utilizing opportunities and challenges to retain strong volunteers. Participants are encouraged to come with open minds to share their successes/challenges with recruiting and retaining volunteers.

Bio: Jenny combined her passion for volunteer engagement/management with her background in Human Resources. She currently supports by developing and strengthening the volunteer programs in Fraser Health and District of West Vancouver. Her mission is to create a sense of community by supporting volunteers in different seasons of life fulfilling their desires and purpose, and embracing the interactions between volunteers from different generations. Jenny sincerely appreciates Canada's strong culture of volunteer-ism and she feels blessed to be a part of it.

BLOCK E – FOOD SERVICES ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION

Session ID: FGE

PRESENTER: REID NICKERSON

STYLE: ROUND TABLE

Workshop emphasis: Meet together with like-minded camp food service professionals and discuss timely topics that the camp industry is facing in 2019. Topics may or may not include: dealing with dietary concerns, killer vegan recipes, smart budgeting ideas, staffing issues, capital equipment procurement, or just how to get along with your co-workers when they are driving you crazy. A great support workshop for the unsung heroes of the kitchen.

Bio:

Reid has been in camping since 2010 and is the Food Service Manager of Camp Squeah in Hope, BC. In his spare time he sleeps.

BLOCK F – KEEPING GOD IN THE KITCHEN (RELIGIOUS FOCUS)

Session ID: FGF

PRESENTER: IAN JACEK

STYLE: ROUND TABLE

Workshop emphasis: Come and share your ideas for how to keep the Holy Spirit active in the busy and stressful world of the camp kitchen in the open discussion, round table workshop. Discuss topics such as scheduled prayer time, daily devos, and how you keep God in mind despite the long hours and heavy workloads that life in the kitchen entails.

Bio: Ian Jacek has been serving as Food Services Manager at Camp Imadene for 2 seasons, and is a certified Red Seal Chef with over 8 years of experience in food services.

BLOCK A - THE ACCREDITATION PROCESS

Session ID: HRA

PRESENTER: STEPHEN JACKSON & MORGAN TAYLOR

STYLE: EXPERIENTIAL

Workshop emphasis: This workshop will outline the accreditation process from the moment you remember you are being accredited this summer to the moment you receive a decision from the BCCA board in the fall. We'll also cover ways to make the process easier. This session will be beneficial for camps being visited and individuals doing the visits.

Bio: Morgan is Associate Director of Gardom Lake Bible Camp and Stephen is a Program Director at Stillwood. Both are passionate about making the accreditation process painless and empowering for camps. They have each served on the BCCA board for multiple years.

BLOCK B - GENDER DIVERSITY PLANNING: SUPPORTING GENDER DIVERSE CAMPERS, FAMILIES, AND STAFF

Session ID: HRB

PRESENTER: DAVIN ALLEN

STYLE: PRESENTATION & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: While gender diversity is gaining acceptance in today's society, trans, trans*, and genderqueer people continue to be at high risk as targets for bullying and violence. While camps can play an integral role in supporting gender diverse campers, when a camper or staff comes out, camps are often left scrambling to adapt existing policy and find resources when they are already being pulled in multiple directions.

Bio: Davin Allan is the Outdoor Education Director at YMCA Camp Elphinstone and the Co-Founder of the Pride Camping Association. He completed his HBA in sociology focusing on gender and youth studies. After working at a camp for LGBTQ+ youth, Davin saw the need for other camps to embrace inclusion and acceptance, ensuring LGBTQ+ campers can access safe, barrier-free camp experiences. Collaborating with LGBTQ+ leaders, Davin co-founded the Pride Camping Association, providing resources, training, and guidelines for inclusion of LGBTQ+ campers across the industry.

BLOCK C - DEALING WITH CHALLENGING EMPLOYEES

Session ID: HRC

PRESENTER: CRAIG DOUGLAS

STYLE: PRESENTATION & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: "WHY DID WE EVER HIRE THEM?!" If you've ever struggled with an employee or a co-worker... then you're normal. This workshop will look at best practices for hiring, firing, and helping difficult employees and volunteers succeed in their positions. We will also look at some legal issues such as tenancy laws that take you by surprise if you're not aware of them (as this presenter wasn't...).

Bio: *Craig has somehow managed to direct Timberline Ranch since 2005. He has a wonderful wife and two amazing, tolerant teenagers. He enjoys writing, teaching, traveling, reading, hiking, guitar, and European board games. His first book, Pillow Fights and Sleepless Nights, has enjoyed several months on the Timberline Best Sellers List. His dry sense of humour and passionate story telling will keep you awake for minutes, if not longer.*

BLOCK D – GET YOUR ABUSE SAFETY TRAINING DUCKS IN A ROW

Session ID: HRD

PRESENTER: ROLAND McQUADE

STYLE: PRESENTATION & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: Are your staff keeping it safe with campers? Or are they an incident waiting to happen? Without clear, practical training, your staff may be your greatest risk for inappropriate behavior or allegations. Learn what (and how) you need to teach to keep your staff and campers safe. We'll also touch on the role of good policy, screening, and supervision.

Bio: Roland has served full time with One Hope Canada for 24 years. He has directed summer day camps across BC for 20 years with his wife and three children. He currently oversees the Online Training Centre for One Hope Canada's 42 Bible Camps and their 1000 plus summer and full time missionaries. He has developed various safety training courses along with other online training.

BLOCK E – CAMP ADMINS UNITE: TIME TO CHAT ABOUT PARENT COMMUNICATION AND REPORTING SETTING

Session ID: HRE

PRESENTER: JOSH BRADSHAW

STYLE: INTERACTIVE LECTURE & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: Are other camps mailing anything to parents during the year? If so, what and when? What on-line tools are being used to communicate efficiently? What are other camps "go to" summer reports, financial reports for boards/senior management, etc.? Join this panel of seasoned camp administrators/directors as we tackle issues specific to parent communication and year-round reporting needs. This is a collaborative session for us to discuss and share unique ideas and best practices. Ideal for those involved in the administration of camp!

Bio: Josh has worked with CampBrain for 10 years. He has seen all aspects of assisting and supporting camps over the years, having had roles in tech support, on-line registration and now in sales. In a similar way, prior to CampBrain, Josh held numerous positions at Camp Wenonah for eight years. He is a "camp guy" with a passion of wanting to help camps succeed. When not talking about camp or being at camp, Josh can be found spending as much time as possible with his wife Maia and his two daughters Zosia and Celia.

BLOCK F – PREVENTION AND MANAGEMENT OF COMMUNICABLE DISEASE IN A CAMP SETTING

Session ID: HRF

PRESENTER: SUSAN LOADMAN

STYLE: PRESENTATION & DISCUSSION

Workshop emphasis: Learn how communicable diseases are transmitted, how to prevent the spread and what to do if a communicable disease occurs in a group/camp setting. Come and ask all your questions!
